History of the 49th Pennsylvania.

BY A. B. HUTCHISON,
Late Captain of Company 'C.'

CHAPTER XVI.

Battle of May 10th—Battle of May 12th—March across Ny river—Move to our Right—Fight of our Reinforcements—March to Guinney Station—March to North Anna River—Skirmish on South Bank—Tearing up Virginia Central Railroad—Prisoners—Butler's House—March to Chesterfield Station—Forced night march to Pamunkey river—March to Hanover C. H.—Skirmish on the Talopotomy—March to Cold Harbor—Battle of June 1st—Battle of June 3d—Digging up to the Rebels—Seven days in close Quarters—Mistaken Rebels—Evacuation of Cold Harbor.

We remained, Sunday, the 5th of May, quietly in our new position. We could hear a shot once in a while, but there seemed to be less than the usual amount of fighting. We had a mail—some good news from our Cavalry—and lay down to one quiet night's sleep. It continued to rain, however, and that we had become enough accustomed to not to find the wet weather a serious hardship.—Next day we did picket duty, and nothing of any interest occurred.

Next day we went off to the right, starting late in the evening, and moving so as to attack on the morning of the 10th, at daylight. We did not attack, however, for some reason. The point we aimed at was nearly the same one we had assaulted with such loss on the 10th, but, although we hoped to find it but indifferently defended, it was fully manned, and too strong to be taken, so we returned to our camp.

At 2 o'clock, next morning, we were waked up and began a march to our right again, first moving up to a hill nearer Spottsylvania. We then heard firing on the right, and were marched in that direction. The rebels had attacked a body of Heavy Artillery who were coming up as reinforcements, and they had a lively fight. It was ended before we could get to them, and, although the Artillery lost a good many men, they repulsed and drove off the rebels.

A great many straggling rebels were picked up by us next day as we advanced and skirmished with them, and most of their dead and wounded fell into our hands. One young rebel soldier was shot by one of our skirmishers in the door yard of his father's house. He had ferried at home too long. He died next day, and was buried in the family burying-ground, inside our lines, the family being allowed to pass the lines for that purpose.

The enemy had left our immediate front, and we had a comparatively quiet day, getting a good supply of rations in the evening.

On the 21st of May we began our march towards the left once more. The pickets of the enemy appeared again, and followed us closely. We went by the hill we had occupied before; but, after a brief halt, during which the rebels made an attack upon us, but were, evidently, only feeling to see if we were there, and were not spoiling for a fight. They were very easily repulsed; and, if they had nobody hurt, they were just as lucky as ourselves.

On the 22nd, Sunday, we continued our march across the Ny river, and the railroad, and on to Guinney's Station, the scene of Stonewall Jackson's death. After a brief halt, during which we emptied several ice houses for our comfort, we moved on to Flippo, and encamped for the night.

THE Gettysburg Military Reunion, which was designed to bring together all the officers, rebel and union, who participated in the great battle, turned out a comparative failure. Two rebel Colonels were all who dared to meet on the field of their inglorious defeat, the man who conquered them in that terrible struggle. A large number of union officers also decline to fraternize as proposed, with the men whose bloody treason had well nigh sundered our union and destroyed our liberties. May the name of Gettysburg, through all time, be a terror to traitors and may the brave men who gained that glorious victory ever refuse to meet on equal terms all traitors and rebels, who imbrued their hands in the blood of our brothers for the wicked purpose of destroying American liberty.

THE Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the State of Pennsylvania invite proposals for the redemption of one million of dollars of the State loan, due July 1, 1870. Thus, under Republican administration, the reduction of our State debt goes steadily on, and this fact alone is a most convincing argument for the re-election of Governor Geary in October next. What Democratic administration ever presented such a record of good deeds done? The good works of the copperheads have never existed except in promises that bore no fruit.

☞ During the war Asa Packer packed his trunks and went to Europe, where he stayed two whole years, consorting with the Rebels. Should such a patriot be chosen Governor of the great State of Pennsylvania?

☞ Remember, tax payers, that wherever the Republicans are in power the debts are being paid and the taxes are being decreased, while under Democratic administrations the the reverse is true.

Slingsback.

Must Moyer, Meyer or the Class, furnish books when the Harrisburg "sing" commences?

If the Court House Ring is demoralized at this early day, may the good Lord bless their crazy brains after the 12th of October next.

A sensation coppermonger says Gov. Geary pardoned the murderer, Twitchell, for stamps. If he did—but he didn't, of course—they were Democratic ducats. Look out for Twitchell along side the classical Morrisey, anon. The Democracy send their best men to Congress.

The Democracy are to make a silent campaign. We suppose, then, they will die without making any sign, but shades of Five Points, what a fearful stench.

When Peter gets his troupe together, and opens up in the play of the "Forty Thieves," we learn that his "little dutch villain," Fred. Kurtz, and the great $30,000 Haines oil operator will be second and third thieves. Peter prefers the head of the set.

The Watchman folks had a spasm of repentance the other day, and in the paroxism of their awakening, exclaimed, in self contemplation, "all men are sinners."

"While the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return."

There are five American convicts in French penitentiaries—every one of whom was a New York Democrat

The New York World says there is to be an earnest effort made to wake up the Democratic party in Pennsylvania. What amount of the "earnest" will reach the Bellefonte Ring after leaving Mauch Chunck, will be hard to determine.

The Cops are mightily disgusted with their record on debts in Centre county. They try hard to crab out of it, but it sticks like as did the fabled shirt of Narcissus.

The Lewistown True Democrat, intensely Democratic, pronounces P. Gray Meek's Twitchell canard a fishy and sensational document. How are the mighty fallen! Bear a hand, comrade, and help to bury the dead.

The Democratic State Central Committee, at the call of Mr. Matchler, will meet next week to fix upon the local habitation" from which their candidate for Governor will hail until Oct. 12 h.—His address after that date will be somewhere upon a Saline River.

Does the present Deputy Sheriff own the jail, or have the people some interest in the building? We were under the impression that the tax-payers of Centre county had some rights which their servants were bound to respect.

Old Uncle John Morrison, Democratic nominee for Register, whom Meek abused so villainously during his travels in Pennsvalley, reminds us of old "Uncle Tom" in old "Uncle Tom's Cabin." He has outlived the average age allotted human kind—has become a curiosity, and remarkable for his longevity—cannot, we understand, write his name—was hoisted into prominence as a compromise—never could, according to P. Gray, "make a decent living for himself," and the Democratic party do not expect to elect him. Compare him and his qualifications with those of that energetic, competent and educated gentleman and scholar, Mr. William Curtin. Humph!

Peaches and Democrats are plenty this fall, but have the "rot" fearfully. Both are falling off early in the campaign.

As proof as strong as Holy Writ, that men are endowed with superior endurance to the gentler sex, we note the sad death of a young girl in Phillipsburg, occasioned by drinking concentrated lye. We know of a brace of Democratic Editors who have drank double-distilled, fire-and-lightning, the worse-side-of-hell, triple concentrated lie, and they are alive and doing well. But then, they spew it up every week—in the Watchman.

The Watchman chaps acknowledge that "God's ways are not their ways." True O, King. But he has a way provided for His righteous and best loved, seemeth to Him sufficient. Democratic armor will be but as tinder-wood in that day.

The Watchman, in wishing success to the new Democratic sheet, started at Emporium, Cameron county, in the interest of dissatisfied Democrats, shows that the awful castigation he received at the hands of the late county convention still rankles in his breast. It can't be helped, Peter; you must go Morrison, McCleskey, Grenoble, and, worst of all, Meyer, or, rather, Meyer. Waugh!

We wonder if the Democracy are satisfied to let a humane bill, for the preservation of life, pass a Republican Legislature, now, that their malignity has encompassed the death of 200 brave, toiling workmen, delving for their daily bread in the doomed mines of Avendale.

The nonsensical farfanade over the "Rote and his Revolver" canard, will simply re-act upon the head of its author, as did the Twitchell calumny.

The signal guns from Wilmington, Del; Vermont and San Francisco, are like death sentences to the much afflicted Democracy. The guns will increase in number and volume in October. Stand from under.

A party capable of sacking orphan asylums, and causing the harrowing death of 200 brave workingmen in a coal mine, can hardly expect a very hearty support from our toiling masses. Workingmen of Centre county, remember your friends.

From the Pittsburg Commercial.

Asa Packer--His Course During The War And Since.

The critical readers of our paper ought to be pretty well posted in regard to the antecedents of the Democratic nominee for Governor. We have now, however, procured some new evidence of his skill in eluding taxation, but will very briefly notice the points heretofore made before furnishing our readers with it. Asa Packer was one of the thirty-five anti-Douglas delegates from Penn'a to the National Democratic Convention in April, 1860, and during that memorable convention at Charleston, Baltimore and Richmond, did everything in his power to disrupt the Democratic party and bring on the rebellion headed by Jeff. Davis & Co.

As has been fully explained by Captain F. H. Rauch, and not denied by any one, Mr. Packer bolted the nomination of Douglas and zealously supported Breckinridge and Lane in 1860. His influence during the war was entirely with the Copperheads; all his surroundings were of the extremest pro-slavery character. Vallandigham, when driven from home by the loyalty of the Buckeye State, sought refuge on the banks of the Lehigh, and at the home of this same Asa Packer. At a still later period, when the Confederacy was crumbling beneath sturdy blows inflicted by the Union arms, he went to Europe to avoid seeing the miseries inflicted upon his rebel friends.

In filling the Union army, the ponderous legal opinion of his special friend, Judge Woodward, failed to set aside the acts of Congress, and the inexorable draft went on. To avoid it Carbon county had to resort to bounties to volunteers, and of course a bounty tax had to be assessed. The assessing under the solemnity of an oath estimated the personal property of Asa Packer, not at $20,000,000, but at $1,000,000. The fifteenth section of the act of May, 1841, gave him the right of appeal to the County Commissioners of Carbon county, who in that case would have heard his own statement under oath, and reduced the valuation accordingly. The law gave him this right. His own personal, political friends were the administrators of the law. Did he, like an honest man, seek redress in this way? Thousands have had resort to this simple and efficacious remedy of a wrong. No! He pretended that he had removed to Phil'a,—was as he said, domiciled at the Merchants' Hotel, in that city. His taxes for bounty, school, borough, county and State purposes amounted to $32,500. A goodly sum we admit, but only as the same rate the poorest miner in his employ paid on his property. Asa Packer's house, furniture, family, aye, himself, too, to all appearances, remained at Mauch Chunk, as they had done for thirty years before. His own political friends could not see this trumped up removal as a genuine one, and refused to abate his taxation. The case went to Court. Two law firms were retained to enforce the collection by the county and borough authorities. This resulted in a compromise, by which he engaged to pay the taxes of 1867, and the authorities let him off in the future, on the ground of his payment of his personal taxes in Philadelphia.

We have before us the certificate of Mr. W. F. Smith, that he has carefully examined the assessments of the Sixth ward, Philadelphia, where Mr. Packer claims his residence is, from 1864 to 1869, and that Asa Packer's name only appears for one year, to wit: 1867-8. The other five years are all blanks. In 1867-8 his name appears on the tax list as follows: First, his salary as railroad president, $2,800; second, money at interest, $13,500; third, gold watches, $2. The whole tax would probably be $32 50, instead of $32,500 at Mauch Chunk. And having accomplished his purpose by getting off the assessor's books at his own proper home, he mysteriously disappears from the tax records of Philadelphia, and since this twenty millionaire is a wandering carpet-bagger, and pays taxes nowhere.

This, however, is not the whole of the exhibit. We have also before us, as we write, the certificate of James N. Kerns that Asa Packers's return to the Assessor of the United States for internal taxes is one gold watch and some silver plate, the tax upon which amounted to the enormous sum of $8 95. This bloated bondholder, "worth over $20,000,000," as the Chairman of the Democratic Committee certified to his Allegheny County Committee two days since, pays no personal taxes in Pennsylvania, and only $8 95 to the United States internal Revenue. If he did not hurt the rebels much during the war, certainly he will not help the soldiers and sailors much during peace.

Asa Packer's friends boast that he gave a half million to his church for a college, and that he gave $20,000 annually to run the party machine in the State, and this year is to give them one hundred thousand to elect him Governor, and yet all that ever rumor has credited him with contributing to put down the rebellion is the paltry sum of $50, though for two years past he has not paid one cent of personal tax to the borough, county or State wherein he resides, and only the paltry sum of $8 95 to the United States. These certificates are left at the office of the Commercial to be seen by any Democrat who questions these statements.

Please Answer, J. G.

Who pronounces the people of Miles tp. illiterate, and too ignorant to comprehend his system of teaching music?

Let J. G. Moyer, or, rather, Meyer, answer.

Who owns valuable village lots, and high-priced dwellings, bought with money stolen, comparatively, from the pockets of his too confiding neighbors?

Let J. G. Moyer, or, rather, Meyer answer.

Who stole the livery of high Heaven, and, while hypocritically doing service in the cause of his Maker and his God, within the consecrated walls of His sanctuary, deliberately and designedly concocted a wicked scheme to defraud and beggar his worshiping brethren?

Let J. G. Moyer, or, rather, Meyer, answer.

Who chants the praises of his Master while devising a nefarious scheme to enrich himself through fraud and will'ul misrepresentation?

Let J. G. Moyer, or, rather, Meyer, answer.

Who preaches benevolence and philanthrophy, and will turn a poor, shivering and hungry woman from his inhospitable door, on a cold, bleak, terrible night in mid winter?

Let J. G. Moyer, or, rather, Meyer, answer.

THE DIFFERENCE.—While the Watchman and similar scurvy sheets are attempting to manufacture political buncombe by appealing to the lowest passions of mankind in its opposition to negro suffrage, the New York World, concededly the ablest Democratic organ in the East, is either discreetly quiet upon the subject, or, accepting what is inevitable in the march of events, advises its followers to secure the confidence of the negro, and, thereby, his suffrage. But then, Marble edits the World, while Hon. Peter Gray Meek is the (in) famous proprietor of the Watchman.

The Watchman makes a futile attempt to manufacture a little cheap campaign capital by publishing a silly, uncalled for and deliberate falsehood concerning Mr. Dan. H. Rote, our most worthy and efficient candidate for Recorder. Meek says Rote "jumped from his wagon at Pleasant Gap, drew a revolver from his pocket, and threatened to shoot a daughter of Mr. John Sweeney." Mr. Rote is a cripple, uses a crutch, did nothing of the kind as charged by Meek, which fact can be substantiated by half a dozen reliable witnesses. If you must lie, Meek, do, pray, lie consistently.

JACOB G. MEYER, the classical and pedantic Democratic nominee for the lower House, says that the voters of Miles township, aside from their incapacity to comprehend "his method of teaching music," are so utterly devoid of sense as to believe it an absolute necessity to make two holes in their stair doors—one for the big cats and one for the little ones—not believing that a small feline can go thro' the big hole. We opine that the voters of Miles township will put Meyer through the small hole on the second Tuesday of October next.

☞ Pendleton claims that the country is in debt. That is very true.—If Pendleton had had his way the country would not have been thus burdened. Neither would there have been any country to be burdened with debt. The debt is part of the price we paid Pendleton's friends for our country.

☞ As a result of the late Democratic triumph in Tennessee, we have the outrages upon the Union people, white and colored repoted by the telegraph.

See to it that your name is on the rolls; delay is dangerous.

REPUBLICANS, TAKE NOTICE.—The Chairman of the County Committee suggests that the Republican voters of the several election districts in this county meet on Saturday the 25th inst., at such places as may be fixed on by their respective Vigilance Committees, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various township and borough offices. All borough, municipal and township offices, (except the assessors,) must be voted for at the coming October election. Remember this, Republicans. Nominate good men and elect them.

To What Dire Straits--The Twitchell Letter--Meek, Burns, &c.

The peculiarities of politicians, when defined and fixed by local reputation and status, very accurately describe the will and intent of the political organization of which they may be "burning lights," or, leastwise, representative members. The internal workings of the lowest hell where Gambrinus reigns and stenches in eternal darkness, has its correspondingly degraded representatives upon the outer walls to seduce and inveigle within creatures alike lost to sense and shame. But there are gradations in degradation and its surroundings in crime, as within the realms of respectable and educated society. The laws and appliances usual and applicable to the one, are in no case permissable in the other. The carpeted, perfumed, blazoned and entrancing surroundings of the higher resorts of the fashionably wicked, have little, in common, that would mark them as being a thousand-fold worse than their less pretentious, and, really, less injurious confreres. To illustrate. The lesser lights of Democratic journalism—permitted, in the all-powerful kindness of a forgiving Providence, to encumber His footstool, wherever their own cupidity, or the ignorance of deluded men suggests the existence of "rations"—with an air of respectable mendicancy do attempt a logical support of Mr. Packer, and their local tickets. They attempt argument, however sorry the failure, and like shivering outcasts of better times, not wholly given over to the degradation of common beggars, endeavor to keep their faces clean, although their pockets be empty. While they are sinners, there is hope of their salvation, while they are villains, they are "little villains," and while they are liars, their needs and their ignorance break—in sympathy, break—the effect of that just and righteous condemnation all good and respectable people are disposed to heap upon them. Of this type of Democratic journalists, Fred. Kurtz, Esq., of the Centre Hall Reporter, furnishes a striking and perfect illustration.

The higher class of Packer's supporters in the field of journalism, are a radically different set of fellows. They are better educated: better dressed; own blooded horses; dabble in stock; build brick fronts; encompass twenty-cent drinks, and live on the good things of earth. They manipulate the campaign fund; go to Harrisburg; build up or tear down whom they please; give the eze to their gullible followers, and reign the King Hornet of the harem. An unusually apt illustration of this type of Packer's journalistic supporters is furnished in the person of Hon. P. Gray Meek, of the Bellefonte Watchman. The suggestive lesson taught Mr. Meek by the late Democratic county convention, we have already sufficiently explained.—But in gaining the information, paradoxical as it may appear, Mr. Meek found himself immensely distanced by less pretentious crafts, or that he had been squarely "set back" a very long way. That he had lost, none knew better than Mr. Meek. That he must regain the ground, he was alike aware as desirous. How did he attempt to accomplish this? No ordinary hand would win, and the very common appliances of argument, persuasion and facts, would be ineffectual. In his desperation he applied to his adviser and court friend, Hon. James Burns.—That astute politician and intriguer, suggested the course, and it was adopted by Meek. Burns knew the murderer, Twitchell, and, while in conversation with the confined assassin had, doubtless, been made the confident of his desires and hopes. Twitchell had suggested that, in case of either his acquittal, or escape, he would go to the territories and build up again under an assumed name. Burns told this to Meek, and suggested the letter. He could write the letter, and Mr. Meek, could make the appropriate sensational comments. It was done. And it was overdone. It was premature.—Mr. Meek confidently believed that he had escaped from the woods, regained his lost ground, was entitled to the everlasting gratitude of Mr. Packer, and that his puerile abortion would be greedily clasped by every Democratic Editor in the Commonwealth, to be, with heavy head lines, served up to their astounded and insulted readers. Nothing of the kind resulted. After the first spasm of surprise had passed, and the common sense of things appeared, a sense of shame and indignation asserted itself, and the author, with his abortive spawn, were most inhumanly pelted and plastered with curses and maledictions, ad libitum.—But two papers in the State had the temerity or hardihood to copy it—the leading Democratic journals not so much as giving either author or child a soothing line of comment. While it has fallen, like a wet blanket, upon those immediately connected with its authorship, upon none has its damaging effects reacted more seriously than upon Gen. Peter Lyle, Democratic Sheriff of Philadelphia, into whose keeping Twitchell was confided. Upon that officer, rather than upon the Republican party, devolves the refutation of this foul slander. The Watchman has deliberately forged the chain, and welded it about the neck of Gen. Lyle, which that officer must unloose, or sink under its weight. The matter rests entirely between Mr. Meek and his victim and co-laborer, General Peter Lyle. How they settle it, is, as Toots would put it, "of no consequence."—That it was as futile and senseless a canard as was ever manufactured by the veriest partizan in the country, every thinking man of either party under whose eye the calumny has fallen, has already settled to his own satisfaction.

Mr. Meek can now go back to his place in the rank where Fred. Kurtz and the Ring placed him, and from which the almighty ingenuity of Mr. Burns, and the shameless impudence and venality of Meek were alike powerless to advance him. It is but a step from fame to infamy.

Political Murder!

The Democratic Party Responsible for the Avondale Slaughter- A Diabolical Record.

We can remember when the Democratic party was an honorable, generous and chivalrous opponent. When statesmen and patriots counseled, and Thugs, murderers, and assassins had no voice in the guidance of local, State or National affairs. Its leaders were not pot-house pigmas, but men eminent for their breadth of thought, generosity and chivalric bearing. Organized force to overawe and defeat the will of the people was not the lever employed to secure political preferment in those days. Argument and appeal then, supplied the place of bullets, clubs, Thugs and assassins, now. Order and peace then, the place of riot, rapine and turbulence now. It is safe to assert that the Democratic party, since the bloody days of the Kansas atrocities, has been a party of rapine, murder and cold-blooded assassination. Its leaders have counseled it—and its money has been expended in organizing and maintaining armed bodies of bruisers, assassins and murderers. The sickening atrocities—the damning record of the Kansas troubles will never be half told. The victims of Democratic devilishness in those fearful days, have never been all counted but by Him before whom they were summoned while hewing out the rafters of a free and glorious State.

The horrors of the South during the late rebellion followed as naturally as that the rain should descend. The spirit was there, and the incarnate devils like Forrest, Morgan, Wirz, Taylor and Winder, displayed it as they slaughtered prisoners on the Opelousas railroad, massacred the helpless sick in hospitals at Homer; murdered and quartered at Fort Pillow, and shot, starved and assassinated at Andersonville, Belle Island and Libby prison.—The record of the party has been no better since the rebellion was crushed. Throughout the length and breadth of the South has the cry of murdered freemen gone up amid scenes of murder and conflagration. The bloody deeds of rebel Democratic Texans—of organized and armed bands of Ku-Kluxes, and cold-blooded assassination of peaceable men, women and children for none other than opinions sake, are all too familiar for record here. The damning story of murdered colored men, and destruction of Orphan Asylums by lawless, infuriated and murderous Democratic Demons in N. York city, we need not repeat here. It is but another chapter in the accursed record of the party of murder.

The past ten days have furnished us with two additional chapters in this infamous record. In the city of Philadelphia, a prominent Democratic Alderman while in the discharge of his official duties, takes occasion to warn his Republican associates that in case the Registry act is enforced in his ward, there would be "four thousand men let loose and there would be murder committed." He declared that there should be club-law on the day of election and he meant it. More than this. The man who claims the honor (?) of securing the nomination of Mr. Packer, publicly asserted in a leading Philadelphia hotel, that before Gen. Geary should be permitted to be re-inaugurated "there would be murder." Brick Pomeroy told his minions to take the life of a President, and he fell by the hand of a Democratic assassin.

But the most sickening, atrocious, and damnable record of this party of blood, we find told in the horrible scenes at Avondale—in the terrible and heart-rending hollocaust within the silent walls of that doomed mine, and amid the cries of lamentation and despair of six hundr'd strick'n widows and beggared orphans. One hundred and eight brave, devoted, toiling husbands, fathers and sons sacrificed at one fell swoop through the malignity and political chicanery of the Democratic party!!!

The last Legislature had before it a bill for the better protection of the lives and persons of miners—providing for additional guarantees of safety by compelling mining companies to furnish better ventilation and safety from explosions, fire-damps, etc. The bill provided for the appointment of an overseer, or superintendent, whose duty it would be to examine, thoroughly, the condition of these mines, and devise the best means for ventilation and safety. To their shame, be it said, some half dozen Republicans voted against the bill. With these exceptions the entire Republican party in the House voted for it. How stands the Democratic record? With scarce an exception the entire party voted against it. The party press fought it—the members argued against it, and the Democratic party defeated it.

The vote of Democratic legislators, impelled by party malignity, encompassed the fearful, agonizing death of 108 toiling fathers and sons in that fearful mine!!!

Is the party content? Has the spirit of Murder been satiated? Or are there other and more diabolical schemes of murder concocting? It does seem that the hopeless, tearful and stricken faces of the bereaved at Avondale—their agonizing supplications for the voices of their loved dead no more to cheer them with their tender and loving accents—the prayers and moanings of bereaved and desolate orphans—orphaned by the party of blood—should satisfy leaders of the Democracy for the nonce. We ask, in the name of God and Mercy, if the people of this State are going to place this party—this creature of insubordination, rapine, violence and blood, in power in this Commonwealth? We have faith that the bottom-heart manhood, integrity and christianized sympathies of the people of the Keystone State will never consent to so fearful and suicidal a step.

Know Him.

We append the following genial notice of our distinguished townsmen, Hon. P. G. Meek, which we clip from the Harrisburg Telegraph. Mr. Meek resided at Harrisburg two winters. If he could win the complimentary notice given, in two years, what may we not have expected hadn't Kurtz and the Ring defeated him at the County Convention? The Telegraph writer in speaking of Meek in connection with the Twitchell canard, says:

"We may simply remark, however, that Meek's story about Twitchell being alive is a creation of his own, and that it is as vile, filthy, abominable, unscrupulous, unmitigated, malicious and damnable a LIE as was ever conceived by the most despicable scoundrel on earth. Its author would rob a henroost, steal a sheep, gamble upon his father's coffin, or dig into his dead mother's grave to steal her winding sheet!"

ANOTHER PECULIARITY.—It is not surprising that a man who becomes so inflated with pride and self-conceit as to cause him to change his name from plain Moyer to Meyer, should be at all scrupulous in his dealings with his own kindred. We dare and defy J. G. Moyer, alias Meyer, to deny that he so misrepresented the status of the Aaronsburg oil company as to inveigle his own brother into an investment of $800. That said investment beggared his brother, and reduced him to actual need for the necessaries of life! That said brother, owing to said investment, and the loss entailed upon him by the misrepresentations of his brother, J G. Moyer, alias Meyer, is to-day in indigent circumstances.

☞If Jacob G. Moyer, while President of the Board of school directors of Haines tp., could, by virtue of his position, appropriate $300 of the township money for the purpose of securing a substitute, for himself, what may not be expected of him in other and more important positions of trust and honor? A good many poor Democrats will agree with us that it is a good thing to have the handling of township money during draft times.

☞The Watchman has a sensation over a 15 ft. black snake in Penn tp. We learn that the report is correct, excepting that the animal was but 5 ft. long, and was of the genus copperhead. There will be a good many of them crawling about the country until October 12th, when it is confidently predicted they will burrow up until thawed out by the golden rays of some other aristocratic millionaire like Asa Packer.

Some valuable and interesting matter crowded out. Will appear again.

The Registry Law.

The amendments and improvements in our election laws made by our last Legislature, and known as the Registry Law, are such as to command the approval of all good citizens. They are not such as to give unusual trouble to the legal voters, as has been asserted, and not such as to fail to prevent, unless in cases of wholesale and tolerably careful perjury, the voting of men who are not legally qualified to vote.

In the regulations of the law as to the registry of men who are not permanently located, roaming single men, and that class who are never long in a place, and from which class of voters, legal and illegal, our districts are so often carried by colonization, it is true that they are subjected to some restrictions to prevent this great mass of illegal voting which we have had heretofore.

In the matter of naturalized citizens, the law reduces, from ten years to five, the time of voting consecutively at one election place before ceasing to require the production, if called for, of naturalization certificates. Every voter should, however, see the Assessor, and see if his name is on the list.

Our vigilence committees must begin, also, to examine the books, and see if names are there that should not be. An examination of the Records of Naturalization in the Common Pleas Court of Centre county reveals some very curious things. Men who have been legally and honestly naturalized, as citizens, have their records obliterated, and made to appear as though they had simply filed their declaration of intention. Men who have filed declarations, and all who have been naturalized since last election, or the Nov. Term, 1868, are not on the Record at all; and, in one case, no record of a declaration, two years old, could be found, nor the papers either.

The Record of August Term, 1868, shows the naturalization of seventy-one men; but of the seventy-one, only thirty-one papers are found on file. Where are the forty? And who are the men?

The filing of a declaration of intention to become a citizen, by one foreign-born, involves an oath abjuring all allegiance to any foreign State or Prince, which paper should be filed in the office.

In Centre county, since last August, including that Term, thirty-four, the record says, have filed their declaration of intention to be naturalized. In the office are found only eleven declarations with the oath abjuring all foreign allegiance, and one of them, at least, not signed. There are seven whose record is not dated at all, nor does it say they ever were sworn, or their papers filed.—There are papers on file, dated since 1868, August Term, but no record, of any kind, since that time, appears to have been kept.

Let one of these men lose his certificate, and apply to this Court for a copy of record, and behold he has no evidence of his naturalization at all, and must go through it all again. The Records of our Court are not true, yet we are not allowed to contradict them.

There is no naturalization Record since August Term, 1868, unless the seven declarations not dated, have been made since. As these declarations must be made two years before naturalization, it is a most important matter to the men, that the date of declaration should be shown on the record

Our Prothonotary has done neither; and, strange as it may seem, nearly all the discrepancies are in the cases of Republicans, or men that nobody ever heard of. If the forty names, whose papers are not on file, did receive certificates, they were either false names, or illegally issued. If the dozen, or more, whose declarations were said to be filed, did file them, they cannot now prove it. If they did not, just so many more fraudulent first papers have gone out of our Court to assist in so many false naturalizations.

Can any thing more be said to show the absolute necessity of a new law on naturalizations? Can a better argument for our Registry Law be found than the Record of our own Court on this question, as kept by a Democratic Prothonotary?

We do not mean to interfere with the rights of our foreign-born citizens; but we object to their votes, and ours, being met by those of men who have no legal right to vote.

We want the Record of the naturalizations to be true, that honest men may be protected in their rights. When a man files his declaration of intention to become a citizen, we want to see on file the oath renouncing his allegiance to his foreign Prince.

If American citizenship is worth anything, it is worth getting. It ought not be peddled as a bribe for votes by political committees. It is the glory of Republicans, that we need not do that, and yet we get now a fair share of the legal foreign-born voters. We only ask for laws, and courts, and public officers which will naturalize, and put on the Registry, those who are entitled, to be there, and keep off those who are not, whose records will do justice to one, and to all the rest, and, moreover, be true.

Jas. H. Lipton may not have equalled J. Ross Snowdon, or the Luzerne county Prothonotary, but an examination of his records shows his qualifications as a disciple in that way of making Democratic votes. As Moran has been chief of the committee of Democrats who got these things done; and, as it may be, he imposed on the good nature of Jas. H., is it not well to inquire what we might expect, should he be elected Prothonotary?

All we ask, then, is, that our vigilance committees see how many of the Seventy-one names alleged to be naturalized are on our Registry, and whether those found there have ever filed their petitions, or taken the oath.

If the Court in Centre is not even with Luzerne, it looks now as though it was only for want of material. Our Republican friends of foreign birth should look carefully to their papers, also, as their records are systematically mutilated by Democratic officials where they are in power. Take good care of your certificates.

We offer no bribes for your votes—Citizenship is free to all who care to gain it. We offer you a chance to aid us in preserving, in this country, the freedom unknown in any other, by voting with the party of liberty, progress and right.

We do not fear you will be frightened away by the stale cry of Know-nothing, now so common in the mouths of those Democrats who were most active in that order.

Daniel W. Woodring.

The gentleman whose name heads this article, was nominated by the Court House Ring as the Democratic candidate for High Sheriff of Centre county. That his nomination was the work of the Ring, no honest man can deny. That he was not the choice of the Democratic masses is a fact as patent to them as that two and two make four. The Bellefonte Clique, the better to serve their own selfish purposes, foisted him upon the people, over the heads of truer men, better Democrats, and more competent and worthy aspirants. Men who have worked in the Democratic harness since the time they cast their first vote to the present—whose boast and pride have always been that they never scratched the ticket, were ostracised, betrayed and cheated by the Ring managers to make room for Woodring, who, to say the least of it, is very young in the Democratic faith.

In placing Mr. Woodring upon the ticket it was thought they would secure a large portion of the soldier vote; but in this they will be mistaken. The soldiers of Centre county are intelligent—true men. Taken as a class, they constitute the best and truest portion of our citizens. They were loyal men. Ninety-nine out of every hundred of them vote as they shot. Occasionally we find a soldier, with a good record, in the Democratic party, but they are like angel's visits, few and far between. How any true soldier can be a Democrat has, since the close of the war, been a mystery to us. How can a man lose a limb fighting for his country—the old flag—the Union and the Constitution, and afterwards turn his back upon the cause for which he fought, his comrades, his old friends, liberty and right? This Mr. Woodring has done. He has leagued himself, for the sake of office, with those men who, while he was fighting the glorious battle in which he lost his arm, were in sympathy with the very rebel who fired the bullet which made Mr. Woodring a cripple for life. Soldiers of Centre county, does he deserve your sympathies—your votes?

For the last three years the Republican party of this county, placed in nomination for every county office, true and tried soldiers, and in many instances wounded soldiers. It is a notorious fact that Daniel W. Woodring—himself a wounded soldier—refused to vote for any, or either of them. He voted in 1866, for Heister Clymer, a peace Democrat, aye, a heartless rebel sympathiser, in preference to Gen. John W. Geary, that pure man, and brave and efficient soldier. Lieut. Harvey H. Benner, Maj. R. C. Cheesman and Richard Miles, who run upon the Republican ticket three years ago, could not arouse the sympathies of Mr. Woodring sufficiently to induce him to vote for them or either of them. Last fall the Republicans nominated Gen. Theodore Gregg, that faithful soldier of three wars, as their candidate for Assembly, in opposition to P. G. Meek. Mr. Woodring refused to vote for Gen. Gregg, and absolutely did vote for P. G. Meek, who was as mean a rebel as Vallandigham, and who had written Mr. Woodring down, as he did all other Union soldiers, a 'cut throat,' a "murderer," and a "Lincoln hireling."

For these, and many other reasons, which we might, and no doubt will give before the election, no Union soldier or true Republican should cast a vote in favor of Daniel W. Woodring. How can peace Democrats, or those men who were opposed to the war, vote for Mr. Woodring? This question we will elaborate next week.

Death of Rawlins and Fessenden.

Surely death loves a shining mark. The electric park had scarce announced the awful doom of the one hundred and eight miners at Avondale, ere the country was shocked and saddened at the announcement of the death at 4:12, p. m., Monday, Sept. 6th, of Major General John A. Rawlins, Sect'y of War. A truer friend, tried patriot, or braver type of God's manhood, the shifting, wondrous scenes of the past eight momentuous years have not provided.

It is hard to believe that Rawlins is no more. The poignant grief of friends is but little deeper than that of the Nation. He belonged to both, and by both will his memory and deeds be sacredly and for all time in heart. Maj. Gen. Shermen has been appointed Secretary of War ad interim.

In the death of Wm. Pitt Fessenden, at Portland, Me., on Wednesday, Sept. 9th, the Nation has sustained no common loss. A prominent and leading member of the United States Senate, Senator Fessenden has been prominently identified with the record of that body. He was a man of great resources and attainments, and his demise has created a void difficult to fill.

The Slaughter at Avondale.

One Hundred and Eight Victims—List of the Dead.

Through other sources, our readers have doubtless, ere this, been made acquainted with the terrible fatality at Avondale, whereby one hundred and eight miners lost their lives. The details of this horrible calamity are too lengthy for our columns and too sickening for perusal. We, therefore, give but the digest, which, however, expresses all that is really desirable.

PLYMOUTH, Sept. 6,—A fire broke out this morning in a flue in the bottom of the Steuben shaft, owned by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company, in this place, and in a short time the whole breaker and out-buildings were in flames, and the hoisting apparatus, the only avenue of escape for the miners, destroyed. All efforts to stay the flames were in vain, and the whole structure fell, partly filling up the shaft.

Miners from all parts of the country are there at work, and merchants and, in fact, the whole population of the town, have turned out to assist.—The loss by fire will amount to about $100,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

All the physicians in the vicinity have been summoned to attend when the condition of the men is ascertained.—The affair has cast a gloom upon the whole community, and business is almost entirely suspended. The mines only resumed work to day after a suspension of about three months.—Among the men in the mine is Mr. Hughes, superintendent.

SCRANTON, Sept. 6.—The fire began at ten o'clock this morning. All experts agreed that it must have communicated from the ventilating furnace to the wood work at the bottom of the shaft, which is three hundred and twenty seven feet below the surface. The flames rushed with great violence up the shaft and broke out in the engine room at the top. The engineer barely escaped with his life.

SCRANTON, Sept. 7.—The unparalleled mining disaster is the universal subject of interest here. While the whole community is thrilled with horror the mining population is more deeply and painfully touched than any other class. All work is suspended in the mines in this vicinity, and nearly the whole force of miners have gone to Avondale to remain until their brethren are brought out dead or alive. A special train is run down from here hourly. No fare is charged those going to Avondale. Thousands have gone from this direction alone, and the whole country is aroused and flocking to the scene of the disaster. In the fourth, fifth, and sixth, or "Hyde Park" Wards of this city the streets are thronged with women, the relatives and friends of the men in the Avondale pit, eagerly beseeching every person arriving from below for information, and their lamentations fill the air. Mining cannot be resumed at any of the works of the Delaware, Lackawanna, and Western Railroad Company probably within a week, or at least until all the funerals of the Avondale dead are over. The fact of the long and severe strike, just ended, adds greatly to the destitution which will follow the calamity. The widows and orphans will number not less than 600.

SCRANTON, Sept. 8.—At 5.15 A.M. a party went down and remained thirty-five minutes. They discovered a dinner-can and cups. At 6.30 A.M. another party remained down thirty minutes, and discovered a whole company of miners, dead, on the east side of the planes. Preparations are making to send down six gangs of four men each, and the bodies will be brought out as rapidly as possible.—The foul air does not interfere to any great extent.

7.30 A.M.—One of the gangs has just returned, and report that they went up the plane, just beyond which a barrier was met, consisting of a car packed around with coal and cloth ing. This was cleared away, and proceeding a little further, another barrier was met, nearly completed, and constructed as the first. One man was found upon the outside, where he had been at work laying up the wall. It was completed, except a small aperture just sufficient to admit the passage of a human body, and it is inferred he had just finished his task and was preparing to join his companions on the opposite side by crawling back. This barrier was removed, when the whole force of miners were found congregated and piled one upon another, dead.

Active preparations are making for the immediate removal of the bodies, which work will consume the greater part of the day, owing to lack of facilities for hoisting. The condition of the mine is improving.

7.15 P.M.—The work of bringing the dead bodies to the surface proceeded steadily, and sixty have now been raised. Their funerals will be held to-morrow from Avondale.

The following relief subscriptions have been received: Five thousand dollars from the New York Board of Brokers, twenty-five hundred dollars from Hon. Asa Packer, and five hundred dollars from Governor Geary.—At eight o'clock sixty six bodies had been raised. Acting Coroner Wadhams will take testimony as to the cause of the disaster at 2 P. M. on Saturday at Plymouth.

9 P.M.—All of the 63 bodies first found together are up. A doctor has been called for to attend the men about to go into parts of the mine yet unexplored, in search of men yet unaccounted for, but there is no response from the doctors. There is a terrible outbreak of grief at this time from women in the nearest miner's house.

Heaps of coal in the shute and screens are blazing. To-night the line of fire extends from the railroad track to 150 feet up the hill.

9.30 P.M.—Six bodies have been found together in one chamber, making 72 in all.

SCRANTON, Sept. 9.—A careful estimate of the number of persons in the Avondale mine has been made, and it is not thought that there were over one hundred and fifty at the outside, instead of two hundred, as first reported. At the latest accounts, ninety bodies had been recovered.

Up to 9.47 last night, seventy-five bodies, all that could be then found, had been brought out.

At 10.30 P. M., a party returned, after exploring five breasts, and finding nothing.

12 Midnight.—Thirteen more bodies found.

12.45 A.M.—Another lot of bodies, not yet counted, have been found.

The air is still so bad as to prevent more than a few minutes stay in the mine.

1.30 A.M.—Eighty-two bodies are now up, and eight more have been found.

2.30 P. M.—Thomas Carson, of Hampton Mine, and George Morgan, of Nanticoke, experienced and competent miners, with twenty men have explored every part of the works, and are satisfied that all the bodies have been recovered, but outside parties say two men are still missing. 108 bodies have now been taken out.

No doubt all the bodies are up, as thorough explorations of the mine reveal no more, and 108 represents the total loss of life. There are 59 widows and 109 orphans made by this disaster. Numbers of the men had children living in the old country, and the destitution is great and requires immediate relief. The srike of three and a half months had reduced all the families to the verge of starvation, and the men not being at work long enough to receive any pay, there was never a case that appealed more strongly to the charitable. The funerals have been going on all day.

PLYMOUTH, Pa., Sept. 9.—To the Associated Press:—Please to request each neighborhood that may wish to relieve the widows and orphans at Avondale, to immediately take such measures as they may think best to collect funds for that object, and forward the same as soon as possible to W. S. Wilson, First National Bank of Plymouth; Col. H. B. Wright, or Thomas P. Hunt, Wilkesbarre; Theodore Spring, National Bank of Pittston; W. W. Winton, National Bank of Scranton; Geo. A Denial Defied.

We dare and defy a denial to the following statement: That Jacob G. Moyer, alias Meyer, as President of the Aaronsburg oil company, on returning from a meeting of the duped stockholders in said company, held in Union county, (at which time the stock in said company had been pronounced utterly worthless,) turned off his route to visit Jaky Neidigh. That he so misrepresented the condition of said stock that he induced said Jaky Neidigh to invest a large sum of money in said worthless oil stocks. That said Jaky Neidigh threatened to prosecute said J. G. Moyer, alias Meyer, for false pretenses, and that Moyer, alias Meyer, refunded the money. That in the settlement of said transaction J. G. Moyer, alias Meyer, cheated said Jaky Neidigh out of $2.

☞The Watchman makes a futile attempt to manufacture a little cheap campaign capital by publishing a silly, uncalled-for and deliberate falsehood concerning Mr. Dan. H. Rote, our most worthy and efficient candidate for Recorder. Meek says Mr. Rote "jumped from his wagon at Pleasant Gap, drew a revolver from his pocket, and threatened to shoot a daughter of Mr. John Sweeney." Mr. Rote is a cripple, uses a crutch, did nothing of the kind as charged by Meek, which fact can be substantiated by a half dozen of reliable witnesses. If you must lie, Meek, do, pray, be consistent.

JAMES KREPS, Proprietor.

QUERY.—Will some patient mathematician make a complete estimate of our total population, confined to small, "sassy," dirty-faced boys and girls, out of school, and the horde of yelping, snapping, impudent curs out of their master's yards? Then strike the difference, and astonish the dogs at their wonderful multiplicity, and the parents at their negligence in not attending to their offspring.

SMART THIEVES.—One evening, during the continuance of the Loop campmeeting, some petty thieves paid a visit to Mr. Wm. Boal, and appropriated the entire contents of his bread-board—leaving "nary" crust for a nest egg. It is supposed the same party returned on the following evening and stole a ham, just brought home, together with some pies they had overlooked on their preceding visit. Shoot'em, Boal—ready, fire!

FEMALE MILL.—Even the sweet and placid temper of our affectionate gentler ones, will, at times, under an extraordinary pressure of personal indignities and provocation, become somewhat ruffled. The tongue fails—though rarely—in giving the telling illustration required, and some more striking method of communicating strong passion and virtuous indignation is adopted. To wit: Two females in the well regulated township of Patton did, last week, upon a day not aforesaid, connect with, ruffle up, be-foul, intimidate and tear sundry and divers skirts, waterfalls and other peculiarities belonging to each and the other. Justice Samuel T. Gray administered the law, and quiet now reigns throughout Patton.

HARDWARE, &C.—We have been looking through the stock of hardware—iron, nails, stoves, &c. &c.—in Irwin & Wilson's celebrated depot for the former builder, mechanic, housekeeper or, in short, for the entire million, and are only surprised that they can find capital to keep such an immense stock of all material to be found in a first-class hardware store. It shows to us, clearly, that we are living in a progressive age—that our country is improving beyond calculation, and that these gentlemen are determined to keep fully up with the wants of the country, or, rather, in advance, for, call when you will, there seems to be a steady demand on all departments of their large and well assorted stock.—Their gentlemanly salesmen vie with each other in accommodating their large custom, and marking and dispatching goods by freight, express and wagons to all points. Our country friends must be building extensively to consume so large an amount of material as we see constantly going from their house. Messrs. Irwin & Wilson tell us that the prices of goods in their line are extremely low, having declined very much in the last year, and are now about at low water mark. We need scarcely remark, what all know, that at this house you can depend on getting what you want, at the lowest possible rates, whether you come or send. Let all try them.

THE HOW OF IT.—We ask of every reader of the REPUBLICAN to peruse the article found elsewhere, in this issue, on the Naturalization Law as administered in Centre county by the Court House Ring. If the infamous record of Democratic Luzerne is to be repeated in Centre county, it is high time the matter, and authors of the infamy should receive immediate attention. If the Republican party is to be deliberately chisled out of a victory, this fall, by the old Democratic game played on naturalization papers—a systematic abuse of the naturalization papers of those of our foreign born desirous of supporting free institutions, and defending the right of worshiping God according to the dictates of their own consciences, by voting the Republican ticket—we repeat, if such papers, and the undoubted rights of such men are to be abused and outraged, it will be very strange if the Bellefonte REPUBLICAN does not traverse that record, and expose the author, or authors, of the insult and wrong offered in free Pennsylvania, to our foreign born citizens. We propose to defend the rights of every man, woman and child, who has fled from monarchial tyranny, to the haven of justice offered by the American government to the oppressed of every clime and nationality. We propose to gibbet the motley crew of suborned, and false witnesses who would do this class of our population foul and devilish wrong. We propose to do this, though others falter and turn back thro' fear or favor; and, once for all, we say,

"Come weal come woe, come wind come rack.
At least we'll die with harness on our back."

REMEMBER and get your name on the Registry list. Delay now may bring shame and defeat on the 12th of October.

Register, REGISTER, REGISTER.

YOUNG MEN—You who are permitted to cast your suffrages, for the first time, this year, on attaining your majority, must see to it that your names are on the Assessor's list, else you will lose your vote. Don't forget.

O. K.—The capacious and complete drug store, opposite the REPUBLICAN—price $2 per annum, in advance—is steadily gaining in the number of its patrons. Zeller & Jarrett are gentlemen well up in their profession, and merit must win.

D. AFRICA & Co. will be in town tomorrow, Thursday, with their magnificent Palace Market-car, with an unlimited supply of all kinds of marketing, and, better than this, these gentlemen inform us that they intend to furnish the "gude" citizens of Bellefonte with the very best material the eastern markets can furnish, and sell cheaper than any competitor can afford to.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., of Buffalo, N.Y., is the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, which he Warrants to cure Catarrh in all its forms and stages. And further, he offers $500 for case of that dreadful disease that he cannot cure. If your druggist has not yet got this remedy on sale, don't be put off with some worse than worthless strong snuff "fumigator," or poisonous caustic solution, but enclose sixty cents to the proprietor and it will reach you by return mail. For sale by most druggists every where.

ARE YOU REGISTERED?—It is all important to the success of the Republican ticket that the Registry law should be strictly enforced. It is equally important that every Republican voter should be registered. Our opponents are wide awake to the importance of attending to this matter, and, although giving the law their hearty curses, do not let their sour stomachs delay their activity in registering. Are the Republicans, to whom the enforcement of the provisions of the law are all important, less mindful of their duty? Attend to it at once. Canvass among your neighbors if by chance they may know of some name not yet on the Assessor's list. Be vigilent, THOUGHTFUL and ACT!

Special Notices.

NOW IS THE TIME.—If ever a tyrannical monopoly oppressed a patient people, that monopoly was the Pennsylvania coal trade. Pharaoh's rod of iron visited less heavily the backs of the Hebrews than the combinations of the coal dealers have visited the finances of every consumer of coal. This question comes home to everybody. It is as interesting to the porter as to the merchant, to the laborer as to the lordly contractor.

This winter everybody will want to stop the leaks in the household purse, and in it there is none much more vexatious or bigger than that through which escapes the waste in one's coal bin. We could but smile in delighted complacency yesterday at seeing the effective and simple manner in which the avarice of the coal speculators is being "headed off" by the inventive skill of Mr. James Spear & Co., Nos. 1116 and 1118 Market street. Mr. Spear cannot directly lower the price of coal; but by the use of his Revolving Light, Base Burning Parlor Stove of 1869, he reduces the consumption of fuel to an extent that, were its use universal, would place the entire coal trade—where they soon will be—upon the high stool of tearful repentance for past extortions.

We can but believe that, in this Revolving Light Base Burning Parlor Stove of 1869, the point of perfection has been attained. In Holland the ladies are so neat that they carpet their cow stables, tie the tails of the quadrupeds in pink tissue paper, and place them on little shelves immediately behind the stalls. The Revolving Light of 1869 would charm even a Hollandish shrew into perfect amiability. Everybody having a hungry stove should take the earliest possible steps to send it to the auction room. Everybody having the old style of dust-dispersing stove, with its insatiate appetite, that has no more mercy on a ton of coal than an almshouse boy has upon a custard pie, will make money this winter by throwing it into the street.

"Seeing," says the old proverb, "is believing." Give ten minutes' inspection to Mr. Spear's Revolving Light of 1869, and you are as certain to order one as you are to feel resentment at the combinations of the coal trade. A burning mass of anything, from a brush heap to a peck of anthracite, burns in a conical shape. In the common stove your fuel is aglow most in the centre. In the Revolving Light of 1868 the exquisite philosophy of the inventor makes the flame consume the coal on the outside, where the heat is wanted.

You fill a chamber in the upper part of the stove with a twenty-four hours' supply. The bottom of this coal is up the fire, and there feeds the flame, regulating itself with automatic accuracy in a manner that comes home alike to your admiration, your comfort and your pocket-book.

And so beautiful is the article that it takes the dignity of an ornamental piece of feurniture. Through the mica is emitted a circle of softened light, quite strong enough either to read or to sew by. Said Cowper;

"Not undelighful is an hour to me
In parlor twilight spent."

The poet wrote a long pome upon the subject of the sofa; but in his day there were no Jas. Spear, no greedy coal dealers, no Revolving Light Base Burning Parlor Stove To produce this was left to be the broadest leaf in the laurel that crowns the inventive brow of 1869.

Mr. Spear makes no profession to work miracles—the fault we find with him is his reluctance to do full justice to his modest merit. Let every one see this stove, and we feel no apprehension that any one will say of us, "Beshrew him for his counsel."

What is true of the Revolving Light of 69' is true, also, of the Calorific Cooking Stove, by the same inventor, by which the heat is equally distributed upon corresponding principles. Wholesale dealers who have not yet obtained the agency for these stoves, we think, will find it to their very decided advantage to communicate at once with Messrs. James Spear & Co., Nos. 1116 and 1118 Market street.

"GRANDFATHERS' STOVE."

So deep, so wide and so tall;
Now the people would say, who are stylish and gay,
"It was only a hole in the wall."

It matters not what, it was pleasant to see
When night's mantle was flung over all;
Grandfather take down his good book and read
By the light from the hole in the wall.

As the sturdy young men rolled in the great logs,
They would laugh at each wintry squall,
Whilst grandma would sit on her old chair and knit
By the light from the whole in the wall.

The girls then wore home spun, and so did their beaux's,
For pride was a principle small;
And courting was done and hearts have been won
By the light from the hole in the wall.

The neighbors were friendly wherever they'd meet,
With a word of true kindness for all;
And joy was complete to hear voices so sweet
Ring round that old hole in the wall.

In those days we know, folks cared not for show,
Of improvements knew nothing at all;
But 'twas really no joke, when great clouds of smoke
Rushed out from the hole in the wall.

But those days are now o'er, we shall know them no more.
And all those old fashions have flown;
Whilst the solemn and gay are coming each day
To purchase the famous "OLD HOME."

Coming not only in couples, but in scores, as hundreds of good and wise men and women have done before, to look upon this magnificent stove, which is acknowledged to be the best cooking stove of the age. Remember the place,

Agricultural Department.

WEDNESDAY MORNING Sept. 15, '69,

The Price of Wheat.

At this season of the year, when the farmer is contemplating with some satisfaction his well filed barn, the inquiry is not unnatural, "Will wheat go up or decline?" The agriculturist would be untrue to himself who did not carefully count the chances of a rise or fall before he made sale. Holding on for high prices, without sufficient calculation, has frequently proved a ruinous policy. A farmer has five hundred bushels of wheat to sell. At a dollar and a half a bushel he would receive seven hundred and fifty dollars. Suppose he took the chances of a rise or fall, and postponed sale for a year. Since these chances are equal, under ordinary circumstance it is clear that comparing one year with another nothing is made by withholding sale; on the contrary, much is lost. Wastage amounts to something; indeed, more than any farmer would willingly submit to co'd he measure it beforehand. It is not improbable that of the seven hundred and fifty dollars he would lose fifty by wastage alone. Again, there is a clear loss of the interest on his money for a year, which would be forty-five dollars. Add these two items together and we have a net loss of ninety five dollars or the interest on over fifteen hundred.

Any correct reasoning, then, which impels a farmer to hold on to his crop must involve these losses. Unless there is a certainty of such advances in prices as will overcome them, he should sell at once. And weighing the condition of things, is there a probability of any immediate rise in the price of wheat? Reports from all sections of the country furnish evidence of a bountiful crop. There will not only be enough to supply home demand, but sufficient for any reasonable foreign demand. It is hardly likely then that any home influence will operate to enhance prices unless the supply of corn falls short. There is some likelihood of this, judging from the decrease of acreage when compared with last year, and taking into consideration the extent and severity of the late drought. But it is hardly probable that these causes will so increase the price of wheat as to warrant a retention of it in the garners. To do this the farmer must expect at the end of the year a price not far from one dollar and seventy-five cents per bushel.

The effect of a foreign market, however, should not be overlooked. England is our largest purchaser of this cereal. She raises an average crop this year; we could not therefore expect to export more than we have done in former years. But Russia has heretofore given her a larger supply than the United States.

This year the Russian crop is short. England's supply from this source must then materially fall off, and in a corresponding degree the demand for American wheat will increase. We have here grounds for supposing that by reason of the scarcity in Europe the prices of wheat will advance. Any rise must, however, be slow and remote. The conclusion seems imperative, therefore, that steadiness will be the rule of the wheat market, with chances in favor of a rise in price. We cannot see how it can decline.—Phil'a Press.

Manuring Meadows.

Although grass is said not to exhaust the soil, except slowly, there is abundant evidence for the belief that meadows must be manured occasionally. Mr. Plate a farmer of Pennsylvania, in giving his system of management, writes as follows:

"My land is adapted to all kinds of grain, and to timothy and red clover. My practice is, when I sow a piece to grass, not to plow it again in less than eight years and I frequently let it lie a much longer time. I have a meadow now which has been mowed for sixteen successive years, and it never was better than now. In fact, my meadows, under the right treatment, grow better as they grow older.

I do it by returning to a meadow all the manure the hay made that was taken from it, and sowing a bushel of gypsum per acre each year. In that way the yield of grass is heavier and finer and richer as the sod thickens. I use manure only for top-dressing the meadows; in that way I get double price for it. It produces as much worth of grass as it would in grain, and also reproduces itself again in the turf. My turf when ready for plowing under, is a solid body of grass roots twelve inches deep or more, and so thick on the top that no soil can be seen. I consider one such turf, when turned under, equal to 160 tons of first-class barnyard manure per acre."

THIN your fruit, every branch of it!—Take the same pains with it that you would in picking. It is just as necessary; it is more necessary; it gives you better fruit, and more of it and that decidedly.—What you then pick is so much the more worth picking.—

SUMMER fallows if to be of real advantage must be plowed and harrowed after rains, add during dry weather, so as to kill weed seeds, mellow the clods, and give all parts of the surface soil the benefits of sun, rain, and harrow teeth.

APPLE DUMPLING, BAKED.—Select nice tart apples, peel and core them; fill with sugar and a little cinnamon, make your paste and cover each apple, bake in a shallow pan, eat with any sweet sauce.

And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG
A most delightful notion.

MEDAL AWARDED AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION, 1867.

In directing attention to the celebrated COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE, we feel fully warranted in claiming for it unquestionable superiority over all others as a Family Machine.—The Simplicity, Ease and Certainty with which it operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, certainly place it far in advance of any other similar invention of the age.

SEWING MACHINE.

The machine which they now offer is quiet light-running, simple, fast, noiseless. Its accessories for
